

Friday, Dec. 13, 2024

	Applications for credit transfer/equivalency (for the first period of Winter 2025 courses) are now open. The deadline to apply is _____. During this application period, you may apply for credit toward courses scheduled to begin _____, _____. To see your program delivery sequence, please visit the _____ link. _____ partner, wants to hear from you! Complete this anonymous survey to share your insights, experience, and opportunities for improvement. It only takes 2 minutes!
	Want to learn about paid opportunities to teach English or French. Come visit Vanessa, a Promotion Agent for the Official Languages Program, on _____. _____ Market Mingle at the _____ on _____! This festive event is the perfect opportunity to meet new friends and immerse yourself in the spirit of the season. Learn more and register here.

Many Indigenous nations use a 13 moons calendar. December corresponds with kesikewiku (ges-ig-gay-we-goos in Wolastoqey), loosely meaning winter moon. Celebrate the Winter Moon with a collaborative potluck on

Learn more and register here.

Library Team on to write a letter or

All materials and postage provided by NBCC. This is a drop-in event, so stop by for some snacks and hot cocoa any time.

Learn more and register here.

Learn more and register here.

Join Newcomer Connections on to become more knowledgeable and prepared for writing the CELPIP test. Learn more and register here.

Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) is offering a virtual questions and answers series for international students who want to stay in Canada after they graduate. Sign up for one or more sessions here.

The break between the Fall and Winter terms is considered a regularly scheduled break from classes, so you may be eligible to work full-time during that period (Dec. 16, 2024 – Jan. 5, 2025) if you will be returning in the Winter 2025 term as a full-time student. You can see more information and eli/Fala3\(c

